

KNIFE MACHINE

Knife Machine is the electronic side-project of Jono Ma and Patrick Santamaria of Lost Valentinos. As members of the esteemed Sydney band, the duo have done the rounds working with the cream of the electronic music world - Ewan Pearson, Kim Moyes (The Presets), Nick Littlemore and Peter Mayes (PNAU) among countless others.

These days, the pair have come into their own; their production and remixing skills are a valued commodity, with labels such as Kitsune (FR), Bang Gang 12"s, Skint (UK), Ministry of Sound and Backyard (UK) all hitting up Knife Machine for a taste of their magic.

Whether they're in the club or the studio, Pat and Jono never shy away from innovation, defying direct classification, instead drawing upon a never ending pool of influences to create a sound that's twisting melons and shaking asses worldwide.
